First system of a piano score. It consists of two staves: a treble clef staff on top and a bass clef staff on the bottom. The key signature has three sharps (F#, C#, G#). The music features a complex texture with many sixteenth and thirty-second notes, and some chords with double sharps (x).

Second system of a piano score. It consists of two staves: a bass clef staff on top and a bass clef staff on the bottom. The key signature has three sharps. The music includes a melodic line in the upper staff with a slur and the instruction a piacere. The lower staff has a accel. marking. The system concludes with a fff pesante section, featuring a right-hand (R.H.) triplet and a left-hand (L.H.) triplet, both marked with a '3'.

Third system of a piano score. It consists of two staves: a treble clef staff on top and a bass clef staff on the bottom. The key signature has three sharps. The music includes a right-hand (R.H.) triplet and a left-hand (L.H.) triplet, both marked with a '3'. The system concludes with an allargando section and a a tempo, Largo section, both featuring chords with accents (^).

Fourth system of a piano score. It consists of two staves: a treble clef staff on top and a bass clef staff on the bottom. The key signature has three sharps. The system concludes with a Presto section, marked p staccato, featuring a rapid, rhythmic pattern in the bass clef staff.

Fifth system of a piano score. It consists of two staves: a bass clef staff on top and a bass clef staff on the bottom. The key signature has three sharps. The music features a complex texture with many sixteenth and thirty-second notes, and some chords with double sharps (x).
